

Tradelog SAU and the group companies are committed to offering active leadership, cooperation and support to the Health and Safety at work Plan, fulfilling the following objectives:

- Prioritize personnel safety through actions to eliminate hazards and reduce risks in order to prevent injuries and occupational diseases.
- Maintain and improve the performance of OSH through the objectives set.
- Prevent work-related injuries and deterioration of health to workers, contractors, subcontractors, service providers and visitors and provide safe workplaces and healthy.
- Comply with occupational health and safety legislation and with any other standards to which the company, applicable to the activities developed.
- Raise awareness and commitment to all company staff about safety and security concepts and in the tasks, they perform through trainings developed.
- Plan and execute measurements, evaluations and reports regarding occupational Health and Safety.
- Work with partners, contractors, subcontractors and service providers compliant with these objectives.

In order to comply with our Policy:

- All Chiefs/Supervisors and overheads are responsible for:
 - Ensure that your team is trained in the approved working procedures to obtain no incident or injury-free working conditions.
 - Implement the Occupational Health and Safety Plan, published in the Annual Process Work Plan Sustainability
- All employees of the company commit to:
 - Support the occupational Health and Safety Plan.
 - Make safety and health part of your daily routine.

EDUARDO FERNANDES
TRADELOG S.A.U.